

I oppose the weakening of Indiana's current telephone law to allow unsolicited phone calls from "established business relationship."